

The Seven Principles for Making Marriage (and love relationships!) Work:

A GOTTMAN COUPLES EDUCATIONAL WEEKEND

Being in a relationship can be hard. Do you get frustrated with your partner? Do you wish you or your partner did a better job communicating? Ever wonder how to have an easier or happier relationship? Do you think your partner doesn't "get" you?

Then this workshop is a MUST for you! Based on the research and techniques of renowned couples therapist Dr. John Gottman, this workshop is for couples looking to strengthen their relationships. All couples are welcome, including non-married, same-sex, and transgender couples. You will experience an in-depth interactive weekend, and will leave with many new tools for strengthening your bond with your partner. If your relationship is strong, this will give you the tools and insights to make it even better. If your relationship is distressed, this workshop will introduce you to some useful and evidence-based information yielded from John Gottman's 40+ years of work.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER
OVER A MILLION COPIES SOLD

Completely Revised and Updated

the Seven Principles for Making Marriage Work

A Practical Guide from the Country's Foremost Relationship Expert

JOHN M. GOTTMAN, PH.D.,
and NAN SILVER

JANUARY 23RD & 24TH, 2016

9 AM TO 4 PM BOTH DAYS
one hour lunch on your own

Hosted by Certified Gottman Educators, Micah Hatchett, Ph.D., LPC and Whitney Webb, PLPC.

REGISTRATION FEE: $500

able to be paid in installments prior to the event with a $200 deposit to reserve your spot

THE PRICE INCLUDES ALL MATERIALS TO BE USED IN THE CLASS

You must bring your own copy of The Seven Principles for Making Marriage Work by Dr. John Gottman

CALL 985.624.2942 TO REGISTER AND LEARN MORE ABOUT THE WORKSHOP